

Ag Ceiliúradh ár dTeanga

Seachtain na Gaeilge

2 - 17 March 2009

Seachtain na Gaeilge 2 - 17 March 2009

Art Competition

During the fortnight, pupils from local primary schools will participate in a colour-in competition. The St Patrick's Day themed competition will be displayed in the schools also. A local artist will choose the best picture. First prize: A Fabulous Art Set.

Bilingual Art Workshop (Adults)

Tues 3rd & 10th March 1.30pm
Teach Mhic Reachtain, 156 Antrim Rd

Developing Artistic skills, pastel painting and watercolours.

Radio Programme

Tues 10th March 4.00pm Raidió Fáilte 107.1FM

Niall Mathews from the McCracken

Cultural Society & special guest broadcasting live in Irish. Contemporary & traditional music, conversation and craic.

Gold & Silver Fáinne Scheme

Tues 4th March 10.00am

Shimna College, Newcastle. Co. Down.

Wed 11th March 10.00am

St Malachy's College, Antrim Road, Belfast.

Students are tested in their spoken abilities in Irish and awarded a recognised qualification.

Book Fair

Thurs 12th March 11.00am - 1.00pm

174 Trust, Duncairn Avenue (Opposite Naiscoil an Lóiste Úir).

An opportunity for the people of North Belfast of all ages to purchase cards and celtic styled gifts. Various varieties of literary Irish-language books including excellent materials for learners and children attending Irish-medium schools.

Card School as Gaeilge

Fri 13th March 9.00pm - Teach Mhic Reachtain, 156 Antrim Rd

Try your luck at Poker, Trumps &

other games through the medium of Irish. Everyone welcome. £5.00 Entrance fee.

Irish Workshop and Quiz

Sat 14th March 11.00am 174

Trust Hall, Duncairn Avenue

For pupils from the local English medium primary schools

Quiz & Music Night

Sat 14th March 9.00pm -

Madden's Bar, Berry Street, Belfast.

Table Quiz and night of great traditional music. Everybody welcome, cash prizes for 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Everybody welcome.

Irish Language Mass

Tues 17th March 10.00am - St

Patrick's Church, Donegall Street, Belfast.

Mass will be said through the medium of Irish accompanied by live traditional Irish music.

St Patrick's Day Entertainment

Tues 17th March St Kevin's Hall 11.00am

Call in for tea/coffee, conversation & craic. Live traditional music & refreshments. Face paints for children. Everyone Welcome.