

Unique sound of Psalm singers from Hebrides

Psalm singers from the Isle of Lewis will travel to Belfast on the 28 November 2009. They bring with them a unique sound and singing tradition. The psalms are at the heart of worship in the Free Church and other Presbyterian Churches in the Western Isles. However, in the Hebrides they are sung in Gaelic as they have been for centuries.

Venues

11 – 11.45 am
Saturday 28th November 09
Tullycarnet Library
Admission free,
booking advisable
t. 028 90485079;
tullycarnetlibrary@librariesni.org.uk

7.30 – 9.00pm
Saturday 28th November 09
174 Trust, in Duncairn Avenue,
just off the Antrim Road..
Admission free,
booking advisable:
t. 028 90 747 114

ALL WELCOME

www.174trust.org www.colmcille.net www.ccmr156.com

BÒRD NA GÀIDHLIG

